Dear Partners

Praise the Lord take care of us.

We were invited by Maria Parra, my daughter to TX to celebrate my birthday. Also, Luis Garcia Arcelia's son-in-law extended his invitation to California. Arcelia has 3 children there. In addition, they celebrated our 13th wedding anniversary. In advance, they asked me to preach at the Christian Church in CA.

Upon returning home, I received the last lesson from S [REDACTED] C [REDACTED] from the prison in Unadilla GA. I was his mentor in the course: "All work is for God" he did it from July 2022 to April 18, 2023. This course teaches ten principles: "Learn to stay in your job. Change your way of a salary. Don't leave work. Arrive just in time. Always be positive. Don't be like an employee of the group. Do not be lazy. Don't change jobs. Be a good example. Let him choose his mentor". He chose Jesus to mentor him.

I recommend that he be faithful to the Lord for the rest of his life.

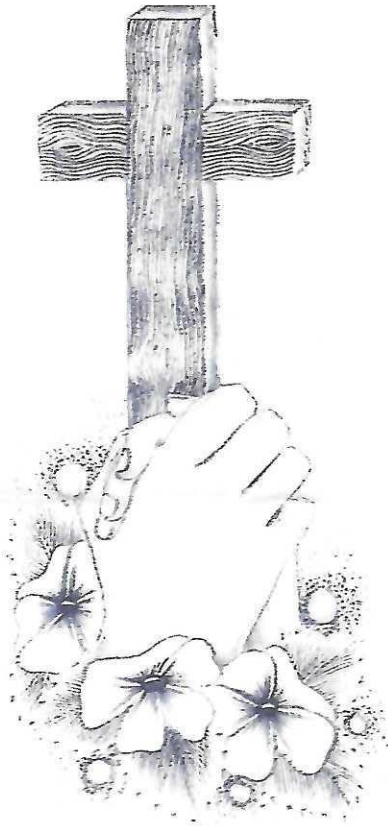

As a mentor you have to be patient with everyone, because most of them don't have completed school studies.

"Be completely humble and gentle; be patient, bearing with one another in love". Ephesian 4:2

Blessings

God the Son

Michael C., PA

He came to this world and dwelt as a man,
Healing the sick with a touch of His hand,
Descending from heaven in the form of a dove,
The Spirit of God bringing mercy and love.
He suffered and died for all to see
So that life could be ours through eternity,
And all that it takes for His will to be done
Is to believe on the name of His heavenly Son.
Believe and obey—a simple command,
Our ticket to heaven—the others are damned.
Now, in our new home we'll be wearing some crowns,
Rewards for His work through life's ups and downs.
There'll be much rejoicing, music and praise,
Glorified bodies and happier days,
And always we'll be with God, just as one.
All glory and honor to Jesus, His Son.

God's Comfort

Earl K., OR

In the stillness of my soul,
God's presence comforts me.
Though the storms may roll,
He holds me tender and lovingly.

All of my fears come to rest;
God's comfort is the best.
It wipes away my every tear
And gives me contentment, with cheer.

In the stillness of my thoughts
And the closing of my eyes,
Through meditations I am taught
As I sleep in peace, then rise.

God's comfort for my daily life
Relieves my worries and strife.
He is my Father and King;
I love the comfort He brings.
